

Fulton County Daily Report - In the News

Robbins Ross Alloy Belinfante Littlefield has hired two associates—the top aide for Secretary of State Brian Kemp and a former law clerk for a federal judge. David Dove had been chief of staff and legal counsel for Kemp after earning his law degree from the University of Georgia in 2014. One of the firm's partners, Vincent Russo, knew Dove because he used to be Kemp's general counsel. Joe Saul clerked for Senior Judge Charles Pannell Jr. of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia after graduating from GSU Law in 2015.

That gives the regulatory, politics and litigation 18 lawyers. The firm's partners also include the former executive counsels for both Gov. Deal and his predecessor, Sonny Perdue—W. Ryan Teague, who joined in March, and Josh Belinfante, respectively.

The Robbins Firm also promoted two associates to counsel, Heather Sharp and Matt Parrish.
