

Robbins Firm Attorney Discuss Criminal Justice Reform on GPB Radio

Attorney Carey Miller appeared on Georgia Public Broadcasting's Political Rewind to discuss criminal justice reform in Georgia. The show explored the impact of criminal justice reforms under former Governor Nathan Deal and the future of such reforms in Georgia under the leadership of Governor Kemp. Miller previously served as Executive Counsel to Governor Nathan Deal and Co-Chair of the Georgia Council on Criminal Justice Reform. In that capacity, Miller advised Governor Deal on criminal justice issues and helped execute Governor Deal's vision of reform by working in a bipartisan nature with members of the Georgia General Assembly. The show originally aired on GPB radio throughout Georgia on April 16, 2019, locally in Atlanta on 88.5 FM, it can be viewed here.

For more information, please contact Carey Miller.