Litigation and Regulatory Law

With a fresh perspective and experience in the criminal justice system, Ada is excited to embark on her journey as a paralegal. Having previously served as a probation officer, Ada possesses a unique understanding of the intricacies of the legal landscape and a deep appreciation for the transformative power of the law. Ada's background in probation has equipped her with invaluable skills in communication, conflict resolution, and case management—tools that she will now bring to the world of law. Ada navigated the complexities of the legal system, working closely with individuals to help them reintegrate into society while maintaining strict adherence to legal guidelines. This role honed her keen analytical abilities and strengthened her commitment to supporting individuals in need of legal assistance. It was during this time that Ada discovered her passion for the law and her desire to make a broader impact in the field. Ada thrives in fast-paced environments where attention to detail and thorough research are paramount. Ada is dedicated to continuous learning and growth and looks forward to contributing positively to a dynamic legal team while furthering her understanding of legal principles and practices.
