

Alexa Ross Helps Georgia Cyber Academy Obtain 501(c)(3) Status

Robbins Firm partner Alexa Ross serves as General Counsel to Georgia Cyber Academy (GCA), a charter school and the largest public school in Georgia, with over 14,000 students. In that role Alexa advises the GCA board of directors, which is comprised of stakeholders from throughout Georgia. Alexa recently navigated GCA's conversion to 501(c)(3) status, which will enable GCA to continue its mission: giving children access to its innovative and affordable curriculum.
