

ROBBINS

Litigation and Regulatory Law

Danielle joined the firm in May 2020.

Danielle graduated from Florida State University with a degree in political science and a minor in international affairs. She then earned her JD from Emory University School of Law where she was the Editor-in-Chief of Emory's Corporate Governance and Accountability Review (ECGAR). During her time on ECGAR, the journal published her Note, Entwinement: Why Sororities and Fraternities Should be Subject to the Constitution, 8 Emory Corp. Governance and Accountability Rev. (2020).

During law school, Danielle also externed for the DeKalb Solicitor General's Office, Fulton County District Attorney's Office, and Cobb County District Attorney's Office where she helped prosecute cases in the Special Victim's Unit. Danielle is also TI:GER certified and was selected by Microsoft to complete an intellectual property fellowship founded by both the Hispanic National Bar Association and the Microsoft Intellectual Property Law Institute.

Danielle is a member of Lamar Inn and the Hispanic National Bar Association.

Education

- J.D., Emory University School of Law, 2020
- B.A., Summa Cum Laude, Florida State University, 2013

Danielle Hernandez

dhernandez@robbinsfirm.com

Phone: 404.856.3265