

Firm Attorney Kimberly Anderson to Serve as Treasurer of the Re-election Campaign of Georgia Supreme Court Justice Britt Grant

Firm attorney Kimberly Anderson has joined the re-election campaign of Georgia Supreme Court Justice Britt Grant as the campaign's treasurer. Justice Grant was appointed to the Georgia Supreme Court on January 1, 2017 by Governor Nathan Deal. She previously served as Solicitor General for the State of Georgia in the Office of the Georgia Attorney General from 2015-2017. Justice Grant is up for re-election in November 2018 in a non-partisan state-wide election for a six-year term.

Kimberly brings to the campaign a strong and varied background in the political arena, having worked on Capitol Hill as legislative counsel on the United States Senate Committee on the Judiciary. Kimberly currently serves a member of the board of the NewPower PAC, a non-partisan political action committee focused on electing women to public office in Georgia. Her practice focuses on administrative and regulatory matters for business and individuals. She regularly advises clients on both state and federal implications of business and regulatory disputes.

Kimberly will serve the campaign while maintaining her full practice at the firm.
