

ROBBINS

Litigation and Regulatory Law

Kim Bunch joined the Firm as a Paralegal in October 2015. Previously, Kim worked in Washington, D.C. as a Senior Paralegal for a large law firm in their Antitrust Competition and Consumer Protection practice group.

Kim has extensive experience in all aspects of case management from inception to completion, including document review and production and preparing exhibits for use at depositions and trial. Kim has also worked as the firm's liaison for private investigators, process servers, and other vendors, and manages the firm's calendaring and docketing system.

Kim graduated from Howard University with a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice and a Bachelor of Science in Psychology. She also attained her Paralegal Certificate from Georgetown University. In 2016, she received her Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Argosy University Atlanta.
