

ROBBINS

Litigation and Regulatory Law

Macy joined the Robbins Firm, and its affiliate Robbins Government Relations, LLC, in October 2022.

Prior to joining the firm, Macy served as Chief of Staff to the Office of Lieutenant Governor Geoff Duncan. While in the Lt. Governor's Office, she served as the top strategist for public policy decisions, legislative initiatives, and served as the Lt. Governor's designee on the General Assembly's Litigation Oversight Committee.

Macy's extensive government experience provides her with the critical insight necessary to understand government issues whether legislative, regulatory, or administrative in nature. In addition, she has experience drafting legislation on a wide variety of topics, including tax incentives, healthcare, and criminal justice reform.

Macy earned her J.D. from Georgia State University College of Law. While obtaining her law degree, she worked as a Legislative Policy Analyst for the State Senate where she advised legislators on ethics and elections policy, and state and local regulatory issues. She graduated from the University of Alabama in 2013 with a degree in Political Science.

Macy is a member of the Georgia Association of Women Lawyers and the Federalist Society.
