

Macy McFall Joins Robbins Government Relations Firm

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT. Macy McFall, the top aide to Lt. Gov. Geoff Duncan, is joining Robbins Government Relations this month as the newest member of its state lobbying team.

McFall emerged as one of the most effective movers-and-shakers at the state Capitol this year. She helped steer Duncan's agenda through a thorny Legislature, despite her boss's lame-duck status.

And she worked with counterparts in the state House and Gov. Brian Kemp's office to pass sweeping measures related to the budget, education policies and tax refunds
