

ROBBINS

Litigation and Regulatory Law

Margo is a regulatory, litigation and compliance paralegal with 30 years of experience. Margo holds a bachelor's degree in paralegal studies. Margo has worked both with firms and in-house legal departments for major businesses in several different industries, such as Macy's, Focus Brands, Turner, CNN, Scientific Games and McKesson to name a few.

Margo has acquired international lottery, gaming, and licensing experience during her career with Scientific Games. Margo also is experienced in educational law, insurance defense, regulatory and compliance, in-house of non-profits, labor and employment investigations and litigation, intellectual property and patent management, insurance brokerage renewal management, board management along with plaintiff and defense litigation.

Margo
Everett

meverett@robbinsfirm.com