

Summary Judgment Awarded For Our Client in Breach of Contract Case

We represented a financial advisory firm specializing in mergers and acquisitions in a breach of contract claim against a large technology staffing company. Our client performed services for the defendant in connection with its acquisition of another company, and the defendant then refused to pay our client the contractually-agreed upon fee. We obtained summary judgment against the defendant on one of our affirmative breach of contract claims, and favorably settled a second claim.

For more information, please contact Josh Belinfante or Rachel Gage.